Ethan,

I hope youre ok and adjusting to Army life, we sure do miss hearing from you.

Mom got a new phone yesterday and a new IPod, she is still trying to get it all set up, wish you were here, me & your mom aren't Tech people. The man at Verizon spent an hour setting up everything I think were ok now.

I'm Asume they took your phone away for now, hope they give it back soon.

Are they having you do much Running & push ups? Just Remember after a while you won't have any trouble doing push ups or Running.

Are there any good looking girls there? I guess you don't have much time for things like that now. Well I'll stop for now & let Mom say a few words. I Love You!!!
